Ramadan Journal

Welcome to Ramadan Journal

Alhamdulillah, we are entering the sacred month of Ramadan, a time of reflection, self-discipline, and spiritual renewal. During this time, we embark on a journey to strengthen our relationship with Allah SWT through fasting, prayer, and good deeds. Fasting is not just about abstaining from food and drink—it is removing negative habits, distractions, and anything that distances us from Allah SWT.

Ramadan is a training ground for the soul. As we immerse ourselves in worship, let us approach this month with sincerity and devotion, striving to carry its blessings long after it ends. May our fasts purify our hearts, and may we emerge from Ramadan renewed and closer to our Creator.

What Does Ramadan Mean to Me?

Setting My Intentions

"Every action of a person is based on his intention."

[Sahih al-Bukhari, Sahih Muslim]

Why is our niyyah (intention) important?

- It purifies our heart and drives sincerity behind every action.
- It transforms any action into an act of worship to seek the pleasure of Allah SWT.
- It will help us stay focused and consistent in our goals throughout Ramadan.

Sunnah & Du'a for Ramadan

Break fast with dates or water

"When any one of you breaks his fast, let him break it with dates. If he cannot find dates, then let him break it with water, for it is a means of purification."

[Sunan Ibn Majah]

Hasten breaking of fast

"The people will remain upon goodness so long as they hasten to break the fast. Hasten to break the fast, for the Jews delay it."

[Sunan Ibn Majah]

Du 'a when breaking fast

ذَهَبَ الظَّمَأُ، وَابْتَلَّتِ الْعُرُوقُ، وَثَبَّتَ الْأَجْرُ إِنْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى

"The thirst is gone, the veins are moistened, and the reward is established—if Allah wills."

[Abu Dawood]

In seeking Laylat ul-Qadr

اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّكَ عَفُوفٌ تُحِبُّ الْعَفْوَ فَاعْفُ عَنِّي

"Allah, you are the Forgiving and love to forgive, so forgive me."

[Tirmidhi]

Post - Ramadan

As Ramadan comes to an end, it's important to pause, reflect, and plan for what comes next. The goal of this month isn't just about what we do during Ramadan—it's about the habits, discipline, and spiritual growth we carry forward after it ends.

Reflecting on My Ramadan Journey

What fulfilled me most this Ramadan, what lessons did I learn, and what habits brought me closer to Allah that I want to continue?
